

Solutions Architect

Description

This is an exciting opportunity for a Solution Architect to join the Digital Team. You will be responsible for aligning the digital technology strategy to the clients strategic direction to support the key business unit, company and customer challenges. Knowledge and Skills • Excellent oral & written English (Must be confident to communicate clearly to IT management / business stakeholders including Directors/Executive) • Proven experience in digital technology architectural roles and able to lead other technical experts ensuring adherence to regulatory requirements, legal standards and architectural best practice • Deep understanding of emerging digital technology trends, disruptive technologies and global digital technology strategies across multiple markets and sectors • Be able to understand and contribute to developing the strategies across the breadth of the clients digital technology landscape • Strong strategic thinker able to contribute to the development of strategy, visions and desired outcomes to be understood and develop associated roadmaps • Excellent interpersonal skills to manage relationships across the client and influence key leaders at all levels in line with digital strategy • Excellent commercial experience, ideally through the design, procurement and delivery of successful contracts with third party service providers or operating agreements with internal suppliers • A natural innovator and creative style able to envision the future and create a framework for the organisation to align behind • Exceptional customer service expertise, able to deal with a demanding customer facing operation and ensure customers remain at the heart of the technology roadmap and digital strategy • Excellent problem solving skills

Hiring organization

TruSearch Consulting

Date posted

8th December 2020

Employment Type

Full-time, Intern

Industry

Fintech

Job Location

London

Working Hours

40